

California Farms at a Glance

California is home to roughly 76,700
farms

California harvests approximately 15.8 million
acres of farmland

California farms dedicate approximately 25.8 million
acre-feet of water to grow food and fiber

California farms produce about $46 billion
in farm product sales

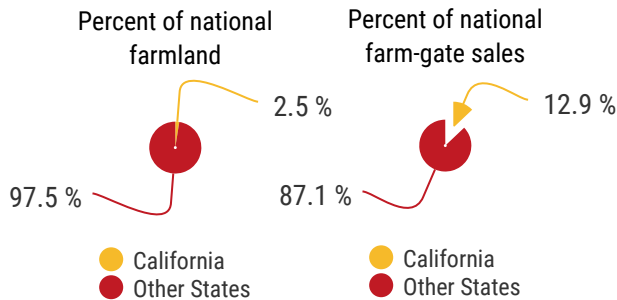

California's agriculture sector contributes about $89 billion
to the economy every year

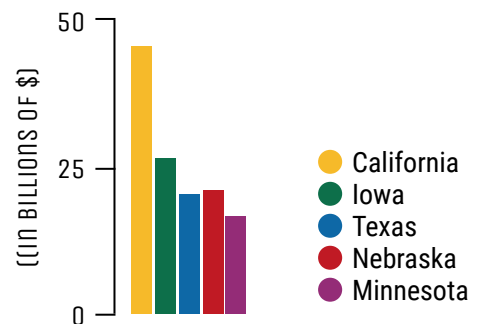

2016, USDA NASS; 2015, U.C. Davis; 2014, USGS

California - National Leader

California's farms produce four times the national average value per acre

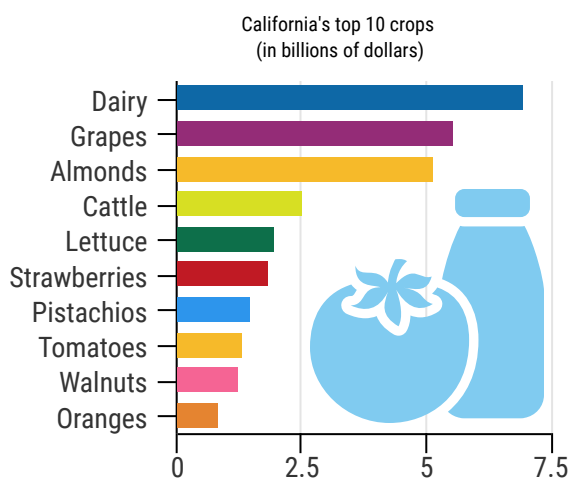

California's farm product sales are greater than Texas and Nebraska combined

2016, USDA ERS

Leading Commodities

Employment

In 2014, California farms hired more than 829,000
people

Percent of people employed in agriculture

